

How Do I Cite the Nutrition Care Manual® (NCM®)?

The American Medical Association style citation for entire NCM® Web site would be:

American Dietetic Association. Nutrition Care Manual®.
http://www.nutritioncaremanual.org. Accessed [Month Day, Year that you visited the site].

Citation for a specific page would be:

American Dietetic Association. Nutrition Care Manual®. [name of page]. [URL for specific page]. Accessed [Month Day, Year].

For example:

American Dietetic Association. Nutrition Care Manual®. Dysphagia: disease process.
http://www.nutritioncaremanual.org/index.cfm?Page=Diseases&topic=17179&headingid=18543. Accessed October 18, 2007.

Other style manuals may order the information in a slightly different way, but will require the same basic info: Name of institution. Name of website. Page title. URL. Accessed date.

The accessed date is essential data, because NCM® is updated annually. Note that the new (10th ed) of AMA Manual of Style advises authors to print hard copy of electronic sources they cite, in case the electronic version is replaced or deleted.

Note: If you wish to reprint or adapt material from NCM® for publication in another source (either print or electronic), contact the permissions editor (kmatthews@eatright.org) for more information.

Client Education Materials

You do not need to seek permission to distribute the client education materials to patients. Client education materials are protected by copyright law. With the exception of adding patient-specific recommendations in the Notes section clearly marked in the client education handouts, no part of the handouts may be modified without prior written consent of the publisher.